

Charles Smythe: Prosecuting Ned Kelly

With Patrick Watt, Manager Burke Museum

Monday 20 February 2017 at 6pm to 7pm

Discover the factors that led Ned Kelly to be charged with the murders of Constables Lonigan and Scanlan. From the perspective of the prosecution we can see how the case against Kelly was developed and delivered. The talk will involve a short performance based on the actual trial of Kelly.

Patrick manages the Burke Museum in Beechworth; its annexe is The Ned Kelly Vault and holds the most important collection of Kelly material in the world –ranging from Ned’s favourite gun to Mick Jagger’s armour and the actual table from Anne Jones Hotel, to Sydney Nolan’s very last painting of Ned.

Click here for Tickets.

Details

Date: Monday February 20, 2017

Time: 6:00 pm - 7:00 pm

Cost: Free

Event Category: Old Treasury Building Events (February – March)

Add to Calendar

Location

The Old Treasury Building

20 Spring Street

Melbourne, VIC 3000

View Map

Old Treasury Building

Organiser of Charles Smythe: Prosecuting Ned Kelly

Old Treasury Building Website

Old Treasury Building Facebook Profile Old Treasury Building Museum

Old Treasury Building Twitter Profile Old Treasury Melbourne

The Old Treasury Building is widely regarded as one of the finest 19th Century buildings in Melbourne. The museum houses exhibitions showcasing the history of Melbourne and Victoria.

Link: <https://www.eventbrite.com.au/e/charles-smythe-prosecuting-ned-kelly-tickets-31585877209>